NEW YORK (A. L.), 1; CHICAGO (A. L.), 0. Although the American League plateau here was heavy and damp yesterday there was a good deal of clean and snappy play, and the New Yorks rallied around Griffith's good pitching with such effect that the manager-pitcher and his men were able to shut out the manager-pitcher's late associates of Chicago, now headed by Jimmy Callahan. While the New Yorks were decorating the Comiskeys with the kalsomine they were scoring only one run themselves, but one is comisteys with the kaisomine they were scoring only one run themselves, but one is to nothing as a million dollars to being in debt. That, anyway, is the way the New Yorks feit about it, for they had to be on the qui rice every moment of the close contest to keep the other side away from the plate. The New Yorks were the more aggressive on the attack, and would have scored oftener but for a hard-luck double—siay, and by virtue of Chicagos' errors their one run was acquired.

The Chicagos made two hits in the first inning, but "Ducky" Holmes, who was the author of the first, was thrown out by Davis in trying to stretch his single into a double. Then Jones struck out, so that Green's subsequent single, preceding a foul fly, was labor lost. Davis's crashing single, Keeler's bunt and Fulz's sacrifice, which was fumbled by Callahan, filled the bases with New Yorkers in the first inning; but Elberfeld's ground hit went straight to White, and a double play, White to McFarland to Isbell, cut the New Yorks down when expectancy was at white White to McFarland to Isbell, cut the New Yorks down when expectancy was at white heat. The second half of the fourth inning, in which the game was won and lost, began with Isbell missing Tannehill's lightning throw of Keeler's hard rap. Keeler going to second base. Fultz bunted to Isbell, who fumbled the ball. Isbell's second fall from grace put Keeler on third base and from there he scored on Williams's long fly to Jones.

 PHILADELPHIA (N. L.), 2; NEW YORK (N. L.), 1. PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—Not until Fraser had knocked out a home run in the twelfth nning of to-day's game did the Philadelphias win from the New Yorks by the score of 2 to 1. It was the longest hit ever made on the home grounds. The ball lodged in the hanging gardens and Mertes ran to the bench, hanging gardens and derive has over. Fraser was the first man up in the twelfth and his hit ended a very prettily-played game. The 1.519 persons who greeted the Philadelphias on their homecoming saw a fine contest. Fraser and McGinnity were the opposing pitchers and they about divided honors.

Both teams scored in the fifth inning, and both runs were the result of wild throws. For New York, Browne hit to Keister, who fumbled the ball and Browne went to second. As Keister again juggled the ball Browne went to third, and scored on Van Haltren's fly to Thomas. For the Philadelphias Thomas bunted. McGinnity made a wild throw and Roy went to third. He scored on Hallman's fly to Van Haltren. Bresnahan stopped off to see his folks on the way home from the West and did not arrive here for to-day's game. Wolverton injured his sore leg in the first inning and retired in favor of Hallman. The Philadelphias have signed "Pop" Williams and Washburn, the former Brown College pitcher.

CRICKET AGAIN POSTPONED. Philadelphians Have Only One Day Left

in Which to Meet Gloucestershire. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. CHELTENHAM, June 16 .- The Philadelphian cricketers met with another disappointment here to-day, for owing to incessant rain their match with Gloucestershire was again postponed. This game was originally scheduled as a three-days' match, but the rain of Monday prevented any play on that day, and now the fixture will have to be decided in one day.

G. L. Jessop, who is captain of the Gloucestershire team, and Dr. Lester, who acts in that capacity for the Philadelphians, decided this afternoon to make an early start in the morning, should the weather allow, when a determined effort will be made to reach a decision in the game. It is more than probable, however, that the result will be a draw, as both sides will have to bat twice, although on account of the soft wicket it is not likely that there will be any high scoring accomplished by will be any high scoring accomplished by will be any high scoring accomplished by either team.

The continuous damp, cheerless weather has had a bad effect upon the visitors, and several of the team have already had a touch of the rheumatic pains to which Americans appear to be subject here during any protracted period of rainy weather. After the Gloucestershire match the Philadelphians will move on to Nottingham, where the famous Notts eleven will be encountered on Thursday. Friday and encountered on Thursday, Friday and

WINS THE BROOKDALE HANDI-CAP AT GRAVESEND.

Gravesend yesterday afternoon, four of them burning up the public wealth. The track, though considerably dried out on top, was still heavy, particularly close to the rail. The warm sun and a card that was slightly above the average drew 12,000 persons to the track, but the way the horses ran sent a ma-jority home with pockets turned inside out. The Brookdale Handicap, at a mile and a furlong, was the chief event of interest. Africander and Ethics were scratched, leaving six to go. Herbert, with 112 pounds, looked to be the best in the going and was made the favorite at 16 to 5, although his price went up from 5 to 2. Merry Acrobat and Hunter Raine and Sambo were all in demand at 4 to 1, with Bonnibert at 8 and Bon Mot at 7. Odom made the running with Herbert, attended by Bon Mot, Merry Acrobat and Bonnibert to the head of the stretch, where Mar-tin let Hunter Raine down for a successful run through the stretch, the Longstreet olt taking the race by a neck in 1:55 3-5 from Herbert. Four lengths away Bon Mot captlengths. Sambo had no speed and was last

Redfern rode his first winner since recovering from a broken collar bone when he put up one of his old-time finishes on "Father Bill" Daly's Illyria in the first event, a high-weight handicap at about six furlongs. J. B. Haggin's Sir Voorhies, the favorite, was slow in getting away and was repeatedly shut in, finishing fourth. Prairie Flower made the pace, with Hopeful Miss following closely, but both stopped to nothing at the last furlong pole and Illyria, second choice. came on under a heavy drive, winning by half a length. Dean Swift, third choice, dropped from the clouds and took the place in the last few strides from Mike Padden's Allan by a nose. The time was 1:13.

There were only three starters in the second event, a selling race at a mile and a sixteenth. Star and Garter and Irish Jewel were equal favorites at 9 to 5, with 11 to 5 quoted against Bill Daly's Orloff, Redfern up. O'Neil rated Irish Jewel with rare skill to the stretch, where he ran away from the others with a galloping victory by three lengths in 1:51 3-5. Orloff, under the whip, beat Star and Garter a length. The biggest surprise of the meeting was

The biggest surprise of the meeting was sprung in the third race, for beaten two-year-olds at five furlongs. The wise men put their checks on C. P. Waterhouse's Cascine, favorite at 2 to 1, while James V. Steelmaker and Nameoki were also well backed. When the barrier went up Cascine was left standing still, but Gannon hustled him after the others, and taking the overland route he caught Billings and James V., the two leaders, at the far turn. But the effort was too much for him, for he tired a bit in the last sixteenth and A. L. Aste's Montana King, a 100 to 1 shot, beat him a length in 1:03 3-5. Cascine, who beat Steelmaker a head for the place, would have won in gallop with an even break.

Ink, the favorite in the fifth race, at a mile and seventy yards, won in the most impressive style. Haacek was caught napping at the post and Ink was several lengths behind the field at the lower turn. But he ran around on the outside, took the lead at the three-quarter pole and came home galloping, four lengths before Dark Planet, 12 to 1, the latter being half a length better than Spring Silk, at the same odds. The time was 1:48 3-5.

The hottest tip of the day was John W. Schorr's Moharib, by Esher Reflection, a full brother to Judith Campbell. He started in the last race, for maiden two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs, and on the strength of a fast trial the money was sent into the ring in a flood. Moharib was backed down from 2 to 1 to 7 to 5, and then went back to twos because of a plunge on Charles Oxx's Procession, who was pounded down, from 6 to 1 to threes. Great Eastern and Sandhurst were also played. Procession was last away from the post, but ran a great race and was third. R. T. Wilson' Jr. S Montreson, 2 to 1, went to the front and stayed there, after running Great Eastern into the ground. He won in a drive by a length from Moharib, who tried to run out at the head of the stretch and was whipped home by Bullman a length and a half in front of Procession. The time was 1:99 4-5. sprung in the third race, for beaten two-

IRISH LAD WILL STAY AT HOME

H. B. DURYEA MAKES FORMAL STATEMENT TO THIS EFFECT.

Candlemas Colt Will Probably Start in the Suburban With Burns Up and Redfern on Goldsmith-Lucky Bettors Who Cashed on Montana King at 100 to 1. Herman B. Duryea confirmed the story in yesterday's Sun during the races yesterday to the effect that Irish Lad will not go to Chicago to run in the Derby on Saturday. "We have decided to keep the Brooklyn Handicap winner here," said Mr. Duryea, and he may start in the Suburban on Thursday if he is fit and weather and track conditions are favorable." Irish Lad, if he goes in the Suburban, will carry 115 pounds, twelve more than he took up in the Brooklyn. He will be ridden in carry his points, twelve mole that he coup in the Brooklyn. He will be ridden in all probability by Burns, as Redfern will have the mount on W. C. Whitney's Goldsmith, who, according to the latest reports, is all right and will surely go to the post. In not sending Irish Lad to Chicago, Messrs. Whitney & Duryea have apparently acted with wisdom, so horsemen said yesterday, for the colt could not have done himself justice after the long railroad journey, with only a few hours to get acquainted with his new surroundings. James Rowe, trainer for the Keenes, has expressed the opinion that, with fair racing luck, Irish Lad stands a good chance of repeating his triumph in the Brooklyn.

Among horsemen at Gravesend yesterday the opinion prevailed that the Suburban will produce a great race with Goldsmith, Irish Lad, Heno, Hermis, Col. Bill and Major Daingerfield as the contenders. E. R. Thomas, after a long cofab with Trainer J. H. McCormick yesterday, finally decided to send Hermis to the barrier.

The victory of Montana King, a 100 to 1 shot, in the third race yesterday, enabled several lucky long shot players to cash. J. McCafferty, betting in conjunction with "Tony" Aste, the "Bootblack King," wagered $100 straight and $100 third on the colt, getting $10,000 to $100 and $1,000 to $100 for his money. George Rose paid out two wagers, one of $5,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Burlew had one of $1,000 to $20, while Fred Bu to the head of the stretch, where she blew up.

"Go bet your life on Illyria," said "Father Bill" Daly to a friend just before the first race yesterday. Then Daly bet $10 each way for himself.

Mr. Murphy's James V. was a tip in the third race, the coit being played down to threes. He carried five pounds overweight and ran as if short.

The winners of the Brookdale Handicap, first run in 1887, are Hanover, Richmond, Inspector B., Grey Dawn, Eon, Major Domo, Charade, Don Alonzo, Stephen J., St. Maxim, Lehman, Royal Stag, Don de Oro, Jean Beraud, Carbuncle and Morningside.

Assistant Starter William Murray said yesterday that when he had hold of $1. Sever's bridle at the post in the fifth race on Monday the barrier was sprung at a time when it was imposible for him to let go without being thrown under the other horse's feet. Nobody believes that it was anything but an unfortunate accident that St. Sever was left at the post.

SUBURBAN TRIALS. Waterboy Covers the Mile and a Quarter in 2:10 Eastly. In 2:10 Easily.

The final work of the Suburban Handicap horses took place yesterday under very unfavorable circumstances. Irish Lad did the mile and a quarter in 2:12½ on the bit. Waterboy, 2:10 very easily: City Bank, 2:14½, all out. Major Daingerfield worked in 2:12½ and finished very strong. Injunction did 2:18 easily. Blues ran only six furlongs in 1:28, and probably will not start. Heno, at Brighton Beach, went in 2:10½ very easily. Hermis and Col. Bill worked in 2:12½ on Monday evening. Igniter, at Gravesend, after the races, ran a mile and a half in 2:41 on the outside of the track, after going around a pair of harrows.

Savable at Odds of 2 to 1 for American

CHICAGO, June 16.-The report from East that Irish Lad was not coming had a yesterday in the local winter books, the price against the Drake colt failing to 2 to 1. This is probably the lowest figure ver offered against an American Derby candidate five days before the race.

Gossip of the Ring. Jimmy Guider of this city, who is now at Mount Clemens, is coming East in a week and will go di-rect to Boston, where he will try to arrange a light with Charley O'Rourke.

graph system for receiving reports from the racetracks is to be put in operation by the proprietors of a poolroom at Wikiwood, near proprietors of a poolroom at Wikdwood, near this city, whose wires connecting it with the telegraph office here were yesterday cut by order of the District Commissioners. The place is in Maryland, just outside the District limits, and the commissioners in the endeavor to break up betting there had the wires cut, thus shutting off communication between the poolroom and the racetrack, forcing them to suspend operations. The proprietors of the resort now announce their intentions of installing a wireless outfit which will be beyond interference by the district authorities.
